

Students' strategies for managing their job search: accountancy and financial management

I expect to earn...
£26,199

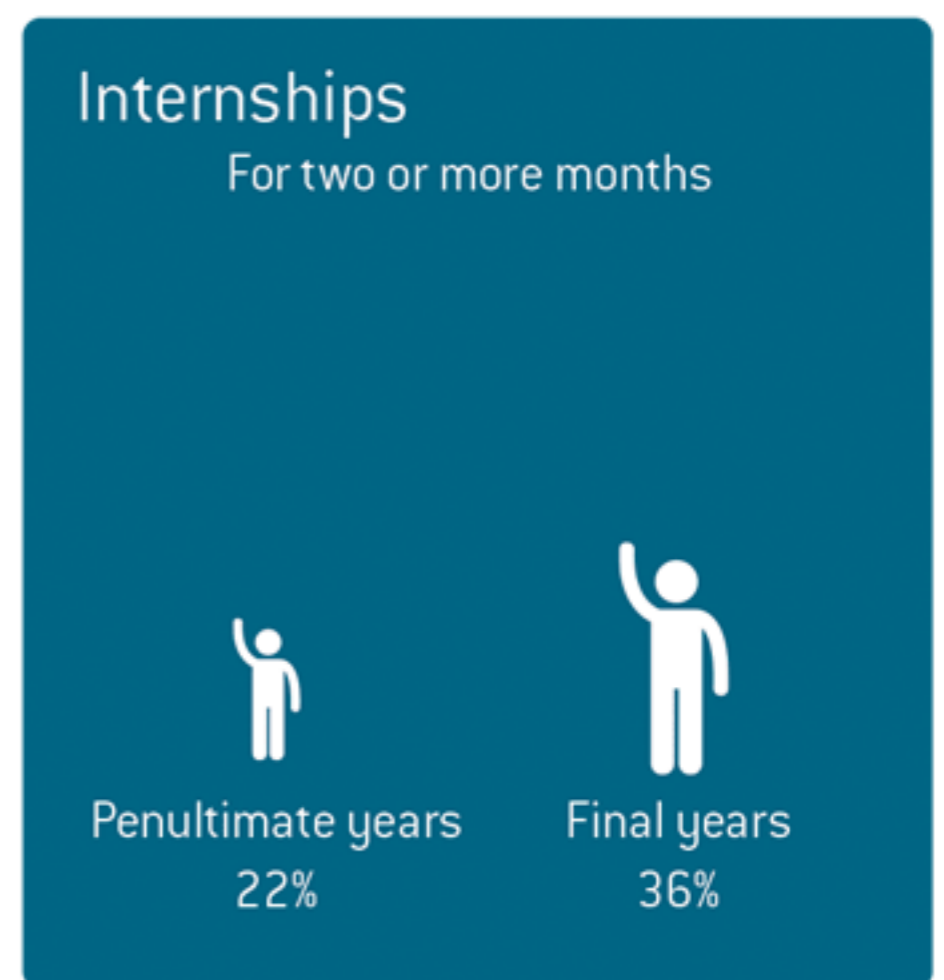

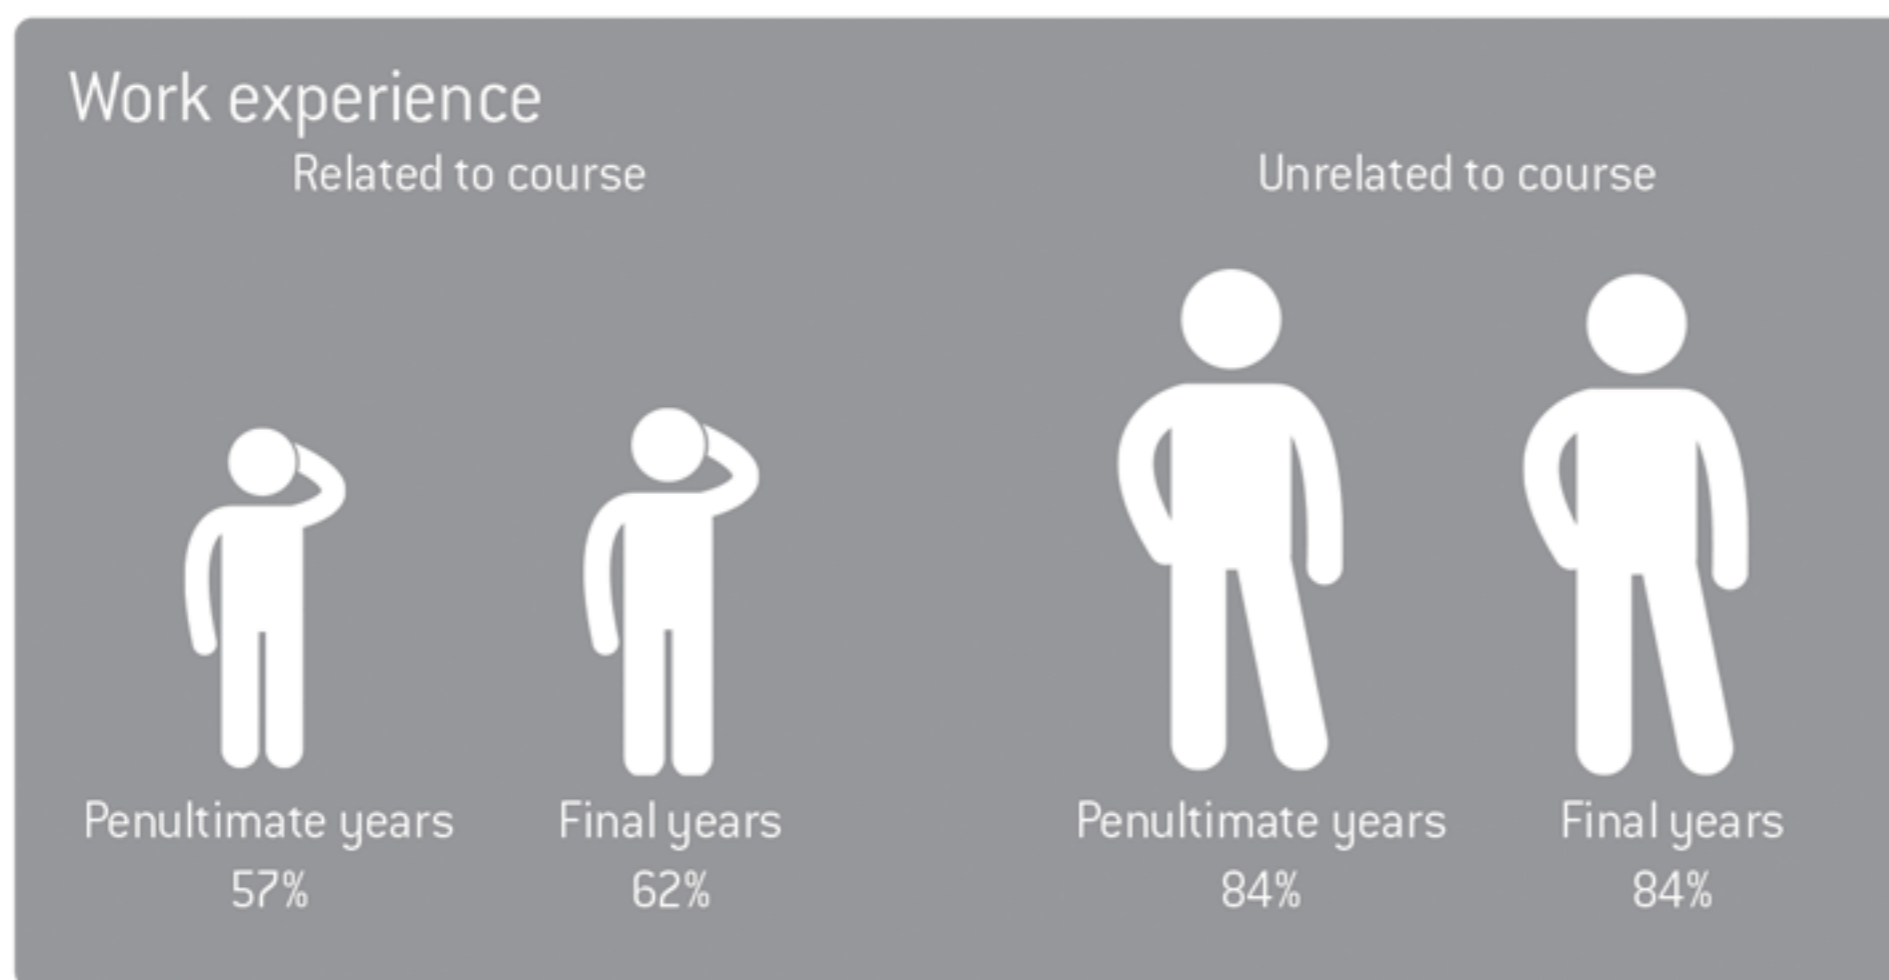

25%
say 'a high starting salary is very important to me.'

57%
say 'a good work/life balance is very important to me.'

64%
say 'I'm worried about my future career.'

- ### Preferred way of engaging with recruiters (top 6 in order)
- Stands at careers fairs
 - Via the university careers service
 - On-campus careers workshops
 - Employer presentations
 - Guest lectures (academic)
 - Networking evenings/dinners

- ### I want to work at...
- A large international company/firm.. 35%
 - A large UK-based company/firm..... 18%
 - A small/medium-sized enterprise..... 10%
 - Any of the above 34%
 - Don't know 4%

- ### Top subjects of study (top six only)
- 1 Business/management
 - 2 Economics
 - 3 Politics
 - 4 Mathematical science/statistics
 - 5 History/philosophy
 - 6 Languages, literature and classics

* This data is based on the findings of the trendence UK graduate survey 2018 and first appeared in The Guardian UK 300 2018/19
NB: Statistics are rounded.