

A career in teaching –
make a real difference to our children and young people; start transforming lives today

Academies Enterprise Trust is a network of 66 Primary, Secondary and Special schools across England.

Our aim is to ‘make our best better’ because we believe that every child deserves an excellent education.

Teaching is an exciting and rewarding career which allows you to share your passion and make a difference to the lives of children and young people.

We offer the school led route into teaching (School Direct). Our one year programme is accredited by good and outstanding universities / teacher training providers.
