Life at the Bar – is it for me?

Fountain Court Chambers, a leading set of commercial barristers, invites you to join them for information evenings dealing with all aspects of life at the bar.

Barristers of all levels of seniority will speak of their own experiences at the commercial bar, including:

- Expectations of the pupillage year
- How to combine a successful practice with a work-life-family balance

Followed by informal drinks where you can ask your own questions.

Open to all students (law or non-law) or others thinking of a career at the commercial bar. Venues:
