Virtual Insight Days

We will be hosting Virtual Insight Days in spring/summer, giving students an opportunity to gain a valuable insight into Carter Jonas and the property industry.

- Property presentations
- Overview of our divisions
Commercial, Rural, Infrastructures, Planning & Development and Residential
- Senior Management Q&A

Summer Internship

A four-week opportunity for students in their penultimate year or above, including postgraduate students

- Structured programme
- Supervisor, intern ambassadors and mentors for support
- Site visits, client meetings and collaborative work across the office
- Objectives and project to complete

We are committed to taking interns within our Commercial, Rural, Infrastructures, Building Surveying and Planning & Development teams in our hub offices and other regional locations.

This scheme is a great way for you to establish if you would like to be considered for a Graduate opportunity with us. Don't just take our word for it...
